4. The Faculty provides library and other information services.
5. The Faculty cooperates with national and foreign universities and their faculties, academic and research institutions, and other legal entities and creates conditions for the members of the Faculty's academic community to participate in this cooperation.
6. The Faculty encourages and requires professional growth of academic staff in accordance with scientific knowledge.

Part II.

Faculty Organisation and Bodies of the Faculty, the Academic Environment

Article 3

Bodies of the Faculty

1. The Faculty is divided into basic and other departments for teaching and scientific research activities, special purpose facilities and the Dean's Office.
2. The basic workplaces for teaching and scientific research activities include departments as exclusive workplaces of the Faculty and joint workplaces with the University Hospital Pilsen (hereinafter referred to as "UH Pilsen") and clinics as joint workplaces with UH Pilsen.
3. The establishing, merging, consolidating, subdividing or dissolving of exclusive departments of the Faculty is decided by the Academic Senate of the Faculty on the proposal of the Dean of the Faculty.
4. Joint workplaces with the University Hospital Pilsen are established, changed and cancelled by the Director of the University Hospital Pilsen in agreement with the Dean of the Faculty. The Dean shall request the prior approval of the Academic Senate of the Faculty to conclude such an agreement.
5. The Head of the Department, as an exclusive department of the faculty, is the head of the institute, who is appointed and dismissed by the dean from among professors and associate professors on the basis of a selection procedure; exceptionally, an assistant professor may be entrusted with the management of the department. The Head of the Department as a joint department of the faculty is appointed and dismissed by the Director of the University Hospital in Pilsen in agreement with the Dean of the Faculty. The Head of Department expresses his opinion on the decision-making in labour law matters of the university employees assigned to the department and submits relevant proposals to the Dean of the Faculty.
6. The Head of the Clinic is the Head of the Clinic, who is appointed and dismissed by the Director of the University Hospital in Pilsen in agreement with the Dean of the Faculty. The selection procedures for the positions of the heads of departments are announced by the Director of the UH Pilsen together with the Dean. The Head of the Department is responsible to the Dean for pedagogical, scientific and research activities. The Head of the Clinic expresses his opinion on decisions concerning labour law matters of the University employees assigned to the department and submits relevant proposals to the Dean of the Faculty.
7. Heads of other departments for teaching and scientific research activities and special-purpose facilities are appointed and dismissed by the Dean of the Faculty on the basis of a selection procedure.

Article 4

Self-governance and Bodies of the Faculty

1. The self-government of the Faculty is exercised by the members of the Academic Community of the Faculty⁶ directly or through self-governing academic bodies.⁷
2. The self-governing academic bodies of the Faculty are the Academic Senate of the Faculty, the Dean of the Faculty, the Research Board and the Disciplinary Board.
3. Another body is the Secretary of the Faculty.
4. The bodies of the Faculty are bound in their activities by the Higher Education Act, other legal regulations, the Constitution of the University and other Internal Regulations of the University, this Constitution and other Internal Regulations of the Faculty.
5. If it becomes apparent that an action, resolution or decision of a faculty body is in violation of the law or the internal regulations of the University or the Faculty, that body shall take all available measures to remedy the situation, including amending or rescinding the decision. Appropriate action shall be taken if that body is inactive in violation of those regulations. This provision shall not apply to decisions and other actions taken pursuant to Act No. 500/2004 Coll., the Code of Administrative Procedure, as amended (hereinafter referred to as the "Code of Administrative Procedure").
6. In exercising their powers, especially in making decisions, the faculty bodies shall observe the meaning of academic freedoms and academic rights, the principles of the Constitution of the University as expressed in its preamble and the mission of the University (Article 2, paragraph 1 of the Constitution of the University).
7. The autonomous academic bodies shall ensure that members of the academic community are informed of their activities and have the opportunity to comment in a timely manner on documents and measures of major importance, which are dealt with by these bodies. They shall also ensure that members of the academic community are able to comment on the work of these bodies.

Article 5

2. The Faculty participates in the preparation of the strategic plan for educational activities and scientific, research, development, innovation and other creative activities of the University (hereinafter referred to as "the University's strategic plan") and expresses its opinion on its draft before its discussion in the Research Board of the University or before its approval in the Academic Senate of the University.
3. The Strategic Plan of the Faculty is based mainly on the strategic plan of the university, the concept of development of the university and the faculty.
4. The Strategic Plan of the Faculty is refined annually in its implementation plan.¹³

Article 37

Annual Reports and their Use

1. The Faculty prepares an annual activity report and an annual management report.
2. The conclusions of the annual reports are used in management activities and for the purpose of concretization of the strategic plan and internal evaluation of the quality of educational, creative and related activities of the faculty.

Article 38

Rules of the System of Quality Assurance and Internal Evaluation of the Faculty

1. The system of quality assurance and internal evaluation takes into account the focus of the faculty's activities.
2. Details of the quality assurance system and internal evaluation are set out in the Rules for the System of Internal Evaluation and Quality Assurance of Charles University.
3. The basis for the evaluation of study programmes is the self-evaluation report on the study programme submitted by its guarantor. The data for the preparation of the self-evaluation report shall be provided to the guarantor by the Rector's Office of the University in cooperation with the faculty.
4. It is the faculty's obligation to provide timely, complete and truthful information on all data required by the Rules for the System of Internal Evaluation and Quality Assurance of Charles University or other Internal Regulations of the University.

¹³ Section 30(1)(a) of the Higher Education Act.

Part VI.
Economic Affairs

Article 39
Revenue and Expenditure Balance Sheet and Provisional Budget

1. The Faculty shall draw up a balance sheet of income, which shall include the funds allocated in the schedule of institutional contributions and grants and anticipated additional income, and expenditure and shall manage the expenditure accordingly. This balance sheet shall not be drawn up as a deficit.
2. After 1 January, until the approval of the University budget, budgetary management is governed by a budget provision, within the framework of which monthly expenditure may be made up to one-twelfth of the income in the previous calendar year. The Dean is authorised to take the necessary measures to ensure budgetary management. Budget revenue and expenditure incurred during the budget provisioning period shall be charged to the revenue and expenditure balance sheet after its approval.

Article 40
Management of Assets

1. The management of the assets of the University entrusted to the Faculty shall be decided and acted upon on its behalf by the Dean or, to the extent provided for by a measure of the Dean, by the Secretary of the Faculty, in accordance with Article 50 of the Constitution of the University.
2. Management of assets must comply with directly applicable European Union rules governing public aid.¹⁴

Article 41
Contracts on the Use of Non-residential Premises or Real Estate

1. The conclusion of contracts for the lease of non-residential premises or immovable property not referred to in Article 40 shall be subject to the prior approval of the Academic Senate and the Academic Senate of the University; this shall also apply to other contracts giving rise to the right to use non-residential premises or immovable property.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall not apply to rentals not exceeding 48 hours.
3. The Dean shall inform the Senate in writing at least once a year about the contracts concluded without the consent of the Senate in accordance with Article 40.

Article 42
Financial Management and Administration of Property

1. The Faculty shall manage the property necessary for the activities referred to in Article 2.

¹⁴ European Union legislation on state aid, in particular Article 107 et seq. of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union.

2. Financial Management Rules at the faculty are regulated by the Constitution of the University, the regulations referred to in Article 33 of the Financial Management Rules, which are internal regulations of the University, or the measures of the Dean within the limits of these regulations.
3. Property Management Rules of the University's property entrusted to the faculty bodies are determined by the rules for the management of the University's property, which are internal regulations of the University, or by a measure of the Dean issued within the framework of these rules, on which the Academic Senate expresses its opinion.

Article 43

Audit of Financial Management

1. The audit of management is carried out by the Dean, periodically or exceptionally, by persons authorised by him/her, on the basis of a decision of the Dean or a resolution of the Academic Senate. The dean may establish a specialised unit of the Dean's Office to carry out audits.
2. The Management is also subject to the control of the Academic Senate.
3. All departments of the Faculty must provide all necessary documents for auditing the management at any time. Individual employees are obliged to provide true and complete information. They must provide written comments on the audit findings on request.
4. The results of the audits are used in management activities and in the preparation of the strategic plan.

Part VII.

Academic Insignia, Ceremonies and Honours

Article 44

Academic Insignias

The use of academic insignia, gowns and robes of pedlars is regulated by Articles 55 and 58 of the Constitution of the University and Appendix No. 3 to the Constitution of Charles University - Insignia.

Article 45
